

1st Annual Paul J. Pasciuto Casino Night!

The 1st Annual Paul J. Pasciuto Casino Night was held the night of Saturday, Sept. 8, 2007, at the Wakefield Elks in Lynnfield, Mass. The main event of the evening, for a $100 entry fee, was a no-limit Texas Hold'em poker Tournament. Other games, for a $30 fee, included black jack, other poker games, roulette, and craps.

The winner of the Texas Hold'em tournament and the top three winners of the other games all received prizes. All guests enjoyed complimentary food and a cash bar. Building on the widespread popularity of Texas Hold'em poker, the event was a fund-raising success for the Paul J. Pasciuto Foundation and an exciting evening for all who came.

Custom Machine, Inc., of Woburn, Mass., is a national leader in ultra-precision engineering and machining of components for discriminating customers worldwide.